The Spitzer 2009 Conference Banquet is being held in Pasadena's trendy Old Town restaurant, Twin Palms. With its namesake of two huge, 100-year-old palm trees and white parachute canopy over the patio, the atmosphere is a one-of-a-kind California experience. The restaurant has played host to many star-studded after-parties, like the 2004 and 2005 People's Choice Awards, the 1997 post-Emmy Awards, and now Spitzer's 2009 Conference!

The Banquet is included in your Registration Fee. (Guests are an additional $55.00.) Please choose one of the following entrees on your Registration Form:

- Mediterranean ½ Rotisserie Chicken, citrus marinated chicken with gratin potatoes, French green beans and lemon butter sauce
- OR
- Angel Hair Pasta with marinara and fresh basil (vegetarian or vegan)

Getting there: The restaurant is within walking distance (approx. ½ mile) of the Hilton Pasadena. It's located in Old Town Pasadena, at the northwest corner of Green Street and DeLacey Street, one block south of Colorado Boulevard and a block west of Fair Oaks Avenue.

Parking: Should you drive, there is a public parking lot located right next to Twin Palms at 45 S. DeLacey between Colorado and Green. The first 90 min. are free, and then the fee is $4/hour.
